Face it; your life would be GREAT! But it's all a dream... right? WRONG! ... This dream is now a reality !

Have you ever attended a really fantastic course and can remember just how good it felt being there. So as you think about it now what was so special about it? Now, I don't know about you, but when you decide to pick the right NLP course, I imagine you would want to find yourself choosing one that can develop your communication skills, focus, or even your performance at work or home to help you achieve your goals and dreams!

Who should go on this course?

Just about anyone who wants to improve their communication skills. The focus of this course is on the practical applications of NLP for people who need to influence, motivate and persuade others.

The real benefit of this course is applying the broader understanding of NLP as well as looking at specific contexts, for example:

Coaches, will learn specific models and processes that allow one to one interventions to happen almost instantly achieving the result of faster, longer lasting interventions with less effort.

Business Leaders will learn how to influence culture and organisational development to maximise performance for minimum effort.

Managers / HR Professionals will learn how to recruit for teams and structure team dynamics that keep a high pace and motivation. Understanding and utilising deep unconscious filters and values for creating lasting organisational or individual change.

Trainers / Teachers will learn training formats for specific types of training as well as using language patterns to gain greater acceptance of your message.

Sales Professionals Influencing people at a deep, unconscious level covertly and conversationally. Discover and utilise a client's decision-making strategy and find out how your clients decide to buy.

Athletes / Fitness Instructors A coaching framework that utilises your new NLP skills in the most efficient way to create fantastic and magical change for yourself and others.
